

WorldLaw LLC Privacy Policy

Effective Date: November 30, 2024

At WorldLaw LLC, your privacy is our priority. We handle your data with the utmost care and in compliance with relevant legal requirements in Pennsylvania, the U.S., Canada, the UK, and the EU. By using our services, you agree to the practices outlined here. WorldLaw LLC is governed by Pennsylvania state law due to its incorporation in Erie, Pennsylvania, in September 2024.

Information We Collect

We only collect information necessary to provide our services and comply with legal obligations. We do not collect health or biometric data at all. We collect your email address and may receive your name and address from payment providers. We do not ask for or collect phone numbers. Our data collection complies with Pennsylvania's Breach of Personal Information Notification Act and international standards, including GDPR and PIPEDA.

Use of Information

We use your information strictly to operate and improve our services—processing payments, fulfilling service requests, and complying with legal requirements. Payment data is securely processed and retained per Pennsylvania tax laws.

We never use your information for marketing purposes. All data processing is done on lawful grounds, including consent, legitimate interest, or contractual necessity. Access to your data is limited exclusively to the managing members of the LLC, ensuring your privacy.

No Cookies Policy

We do not use cookies or tracking technologies. We do not track IP addresses, operating systems, or device types. Any technical data we do collect is anonymized and used solely for essential security purposes.

Sharing of Information

We do not sell or rent your information. Sharing only occurs with trusted third parties under strict legal agreements—e.g., payment processors. We only disclose the absolute minimum information necessary when required by law. In corporate transactions, data transfers are managed under confidentiality agreements, with notifications provided as required by law.

Your Rights

You have the right to access, correct, or delete your data. To exercise these rights, contact us at contact@worldlaw.ai. We respond within 30 days, in accordance with GDPR and relevant U.S. and Pennsylvania laws.

Data Retention

We retain your data only as long as required by applicable international laws. Typically, financial records are retained for up to seven years, but non-financial data is kept as required to provide services or fulfill legal obligations. At the end of retention periods, your data is securely deleted or anonymized, in line with GDPR Recital 39 and PIPEDA principles.

International Transfers

Data transferred outside the U.S. is handled under appropriate safeguards, such as Standard Contractual Clauses for EU/UK transfers or recognized adequacy frameworks like GDPR Article 45 for Canada.

UK Residents

Our data practices comply with the UK GDPR and the Data Protection Act 2018. You have the right to access, correct, delete, or restrict the processing of your personal data. For concerns, contact the Information Commissioner's Office (ICO).

Canadian Residents

Our data practices comply with PIPEDA and relevant provincial regulations. You have the right to access, correct, or delete your personal information. For privacy concerns, you may contact the Office of the Privacy Commissioner of Canada.

European Residents

Our data practices comply with the GDPR and other applicable EU data protection laws. You have the right to access, correct, delete, or restrict the processing of your personal data. For concerns, contact your local Data Protection Authority through the European Data Protection Board.

Residents Outside Canada, the U.S., the UK, and the EU

For residents outside Canada, the U.S., the UK, and the EU, we ensure that your data is treated with the same level of care and protection as required by international privacy standards. You have the right to access, correct, or delete your personal information by contacting us at contact@worldlaw.ai.

Children's Privacy

We do not knowingly collect data from children under 13. If identified, such data is deleted immediately, per COPPA and GDPR.

Policy Updates

We may update this policy to reflect changes in our services or legal requirements. Significant updates will be communicated via email and prominently posted.

Contact Information

If you have questions, please contact us at:

WorldLaw LLC
502 W 7th St, Ste 100
Erie, PA 16502
Email: contact@worldlaw.ai