

WorldLaw LLC Privacy Policy

Effective Date: November 30, 2024

At WorldLaw LLC, your privacy is our priority. We collect and use only the information necessary to provide our services, comply with legal obligations, and improve operations. Your data is handled in accordance with Pennsylvania law. By using our services, you agree to this policy.

What We Collect:

We collect your email and, when provided by payment processors, your name and address. No health, biometric, or phone number data is collected. Data collection complies with relevant U.S. and international laws.

How We Use Your Data:

Your information is used solely to process payments, fulfill service requests, and comply with legal obligations. We do not use your data for marketing or tracking purposes. Access to your data is restricted to managing members of WorldLaw LLC.

No Cookies or Tracking:

We do not use cookies or track IP addresses, device types, or operating systems. Any technical data is anonymized and used only for security purposes.

Data Sharing:

We do not sell or rent your data. Limited sharing occurs with trusted third parties under legal agreements, or when required by law.

Your Rights:

You can access, correct, or delete your data by contacting us at contact@worldlaw.ai. We respond within 30 days.

Data Retention and International Transfers:

Data is retained only as required by law, typically up to seven years for financial records. International transfers comply with GDPR and other global privacy standards.

Children's Privacy:

We do not knowingly collect data from children under 13. Any such data identified will be deleted immediately.

Policy Updates:

We may update this policy to reflect changes in our practices or legal requirements. Significant updates will be communicated via email and posted prominently.
